

I believe that some of those who wish to relax rules on ownership may believe it will help local communities. However, I am convinced any step toward greater consolidation will ultimately harm the public. I am opposed to FCC voting to allow increased media consolidation. Please keep the current ownership rules and look for other creative improvements instead. Stanley and Mary Ann Hagemeyer